Re: Objection to the Third Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico

Dear Judge Swain,

I am a small investor. I write to object to the Third Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico ("Plan"). I hope that my objections will be taken seriously and the proposed the Third Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico will be modified accordingly.

I own approximately $115,000 dollars (face amount) of Commonwealth of Puerto Rico municipal bonds, including $10,000.00 worth of Public Buildings Authority bonds, all of which are now virtually worthless.

I am a 91-year-old widow in poor health and have no family to support me. I need the money from these investments in order to provide myself with financial support and to pay for my medical care.

Instead of real reform and a balancing of interests, the entire burden of the mismanagement of the failed economy of Puerto Rico is simply born by people just like me, those who lent to prop it up. As a result, in addition to harming the bondholders, the Plan is doomed to repeat itself, because the pain was not spread fairly and the underlying structural issues that caused this massive failure to occur in Puerto Rico have not been properly addressed.

Thank you for the opportunity to be heard.

Cordially,

per procurationem, Maria V. Depo
